Plot:

Queen Bee-Bee is having a bee-day party and is opening all of the gifts that the other insects have brought her.

Queen Bee-Bee

All my bees are busy working for me today- so thank you all for coming to my Bee-day Party!

Ant

I carried your present all the way here

Queen Bee

Oh I can't wait to see what you got me! (Disappointed)

Oh- another jar of honey, I never seem to have enough here around the hive.

Butterfly

Open my gift to you Bee-Bee. It will make you even more beautiful

Queen bee

Oh nice! Expensive body cream- (reads small label) with- honey. How thoughtful

Cricket

Hee, hee,

I did not bring you honey my Queen. My present is a song I wrote just for you.

Firefly

Oooo, I love to dance,
let's all dance while you sing!

Caterpillar

I especially like a good line dance- it's a perfect work out for all of my legs.

Song

Make a wish Blow out the candles
The time is here
To celebrate

Song

Happy bee-day

Happy bee-day to you

Song

Some insects want

Fancy leaves

Some insects want

Special seeds

Song

But Bee-Bee my Queen
You have all that you need Special friends that are here today

Song

Make a wish
Blow out the candles
The time is here
To celebrate

Song

Happy bee-day

Happy bee-day to you

Dragonfly

It is time for your birthday cake
Bee-Bee.

Queen

(Disappointed) Oh, let me guess- honey cake?

Termite

Maybe it is wood cake? I love a good maple wood cake

Moth

No, we made you a triple layer birthday cake!

Ladybug

●
The first layer is

●
lemon cream

Mosquito

The second layer is Oreo cookie

Snail

(Speaks slowly) The last layer is cherry cheese-cake

Queen

Sounds delicious. Let me taste it.

Yum! I love how the chocolate from the Oreos blends with the cherry flavor. And the lemon adds just the right amount of sweetness.

Fly

I thought we should also play a party game!

Spider

I brought Pin The Stinger on the Human!

Queen

Oh that is one of my favorite games! Let's all go out and find a human to play!
